Annual Check of the road (1) It shall be the duty of Road Authority to conduct an annual check of the boundaries of roads in its charge with a view to the location of unauthorised encroachments, if any.

(2) When the Road Authority is satisfied that an unauthorised encroachment has been made on roadway land, it shall take immediate steps as specified under Section 13 for removal thereof.

Prevention of ribbon development along and control of access to roads

8. Standard width of different classes of roads.

One of the most effective method of ensuring that ribbon development does not take place is to acquire a liberal Right of way at the initial stage for which the standard as laid down in Schedule-I shall be followed.

Prescription of building and Control lines.

9. In order to prevent overcrowding and preserve sufficient space for future road improvements, the minimum standards as laid down in Schedule-II shall be followed for building lines and control lines. Building lines express the limits beyond which only any building activity may be permitted. Beyond building lines there shall be the control lines beyond which only unrestrained building activity may be permitted.

Restriction of building etc in the area between the road and the building. Line 10. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, it shall be unlawful for any person, except the Road Authority or any person working on behalf of the Road Authority,-

- (a) to construct or layout any means of access to or from a road;
- (b) to erect or re-erect any building or materially alter the outside appearance of any existing building;
- (c) to make any excavation; or
- (d) to construct form or layout any works.

Provided that this restriction shall not apply to any works necessary for repair, renewal enlargement or maintenance of any sewer, drain, electric lines, pipe duct or other apparatus, constructed in or upon the land before the date on which the restrictions come into force or with the consent of the Road Authority.

Restriction on buildings etc between the building lines and the control lines. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, no person shall erect or re-erect any building or structure or make or extend any excavation or construct form or layout any means of access to a road upon land jaying in, between the building lines and control lines determined in respect of the road, except with the previous permission of the Road Authority, in writing.

(2) Every person desiring of obtaining permission referred to in sub-section (1) shall make an application in writing to the Road Authority in the form prescribed in this behalf to be made available in the concerned office of the Road Authority, containing such information in respect of the building, excavation or means of access to which the application relates together with a fee of Rs. 5000/- payable in favour of the Road Authority in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) On receipt of such application the Road Authority, after making such enquires as it may consider necessary, shall by order in writing, either,-

- (a) grant the permission, subject to such reasonable conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order; or
- (b) refuse to grant such permission.

(4) The Road Authority shall not ordinarily refuse the permission to,-

- (a) the erection of a building or structure or the making of or extending an excavation, which conforms to the requirements of public health, welfare, safety and convenience of traffic on the adjoining road; or
- (b) the re-erection of a building or structure which was in existence on the date on which the restrictions under sub-section (1) came into force, unless such re-erection involved any material alteration to the outside appearance of the building or structure.
- (c) the erection of any building or structure which conforms to the Master Plan published by the competent authority for the time being in force.

(5) When the Road Authority refuse the permission, the reasons there of shall be recorded and communicated to the applicant.

(6) In the event of the refusal, the applicant may submit fresh application for permission to the Road Authority, avoiding the objectionable features on account of which the first application was refused and such a fresh applicant shall, be considered by the Road Authority as if it was made for the first time.

(7) The Road Authority shall maintain a register with sufficient particulars of, all permission given or refused by it under the section and the register shall be available for inspection free of charge by all persons interested and such persons shall be entitled to take extracts there from.

(8) Any person aggrieved by an order under sub-section (3) in granting permission subject to conditions, or refusing permission to him, may within 90 days from the date of such order, prefer an appeal before the State Government whose order thereon shall be final.

Prevention of unauthorised occupation of road land and removal of encroachments

12. (1) All lands forming parts of a road shall be deemed to be Government land and be deemed to be the State Government property.

(2) No person shall occupy any road land without obtaining the prior permission in writing of the Road Authority or any officer authorised by such authority on its behalf.

(3) Road Authority or the authorised officer may, with due regard to the safety and convenience of traffic and subject to such conditions as may be imposed and subject to such rules and on payment of such rent or other charges as may be prescribed, permit any person, -

- (i) to place movable encroachment on any road in front of any building owned by him or makes a movable structure overhanging the road;

- (iii) to deposit or cause to be deposited building materials, goods for sale or other articles on any road;
- (iv) to make temporary excavation, for carrying out any repairs or improvements to adjoining buildings:

Provided that no such permission shall be deemed to be valid beyond a period of six months unless expressly renewed by the Road Authority or the authorised officer.

(4) The permission so granted shall clearly specify the date up to which the person is authorised to occupy the road land, the purpose for which occupation is authorised and the exact portion of the land permitted to be occupied and shall also be accompanied by a plan or sketch of that portion of the road, if necessary.

(5) The person in whose favour such permission has been given shall produce the permit for inspection whenever called upon to do so by any official of the concerned Road Authority and shall at the end of the period prescribed in the permit, release the land occupied by him after restoring it to the same state as it was before occupation by him.

(6) The Road Authority or the authorised officer issuing the permission shall maintain a complete record of all such permissions issued and shall also cause a checkup to be made in every case at the expiration of period up to which occupation has been authorised to ensure that the land has been vacated.

- Removal of encroachments.
- 13 (1) When, as a result of the annual check of road boundaries made, it transpires that an encroachment has taken place on road land, any officer authorised in this behalf shall serve a notice in the person responsible for the encroachment or his representative requiring him to remove such encroachment and restore the land to its original condition as it was before such encroachment within the period specified in the notice.
- (2) The notice shall specify the road land encroached upon and time limit within which such encroachment shall be removed and shall also state that the failure to comply with the order as specified in the notice within the specified period shall render the person liable to prosecution and also to summary eviction.
- (3) If the encroachment is not removed by the person or his representative within the time limit specified in the notice and no valid cause is shown by him for non compliance, the concerned Road Authority or the authorised official may prosecute him before the appropriate Magistrate for his having made or caused the encroachment and for his failure to remove it within the specified period.
- (4) Where the encroachment is petty or of trivial nature, e.g. exposing articles for sale, opening temporary booths for vending etc. the Road Authority or the authorised official may, with the help of the police, if necessary, get it summarily removed without the formality of issuing a notice as required under sub-section (1).
- (5) When the encroachment is of a temporary nature and easily be removed but it is not such as can be described as petty or trivial within the meaning indicated in sub-section (4), the Road Authority or the authorised official may, in addition to or in lieu of prosecuting the person responsible for the encroachment under sub-section (2), get the encroachment summarily removed, with the assistance of police, if necessary.
- General provision for punishment.
14. Whoever contravenes any provision of sections 3 to 13 of this Act or any rules made thereunder shall, if no penalty is provided for the offence, be punished with fine, which may extend to five thousand rupees or if having been previously convicted of any offence under this Act with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees.
